++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy with rain and hill snow slowly clearing. North brighter.

Today:
Cloudy with outbreaks of rain, sleet and hill snow for many, heaviest and most persistent in the east slowly clearing southeastwards through the day. Brighter conditions across the Northern Isles and far north with a few wintry showers edging south.

Tonight:
Patchy rain, sleet and hill snow in east clearing through evening, otherwise a cold night with a few wintry showers and a widespread frost with ice on untreated surfaces.

Saturday:
A few wintry showers, mainly across the north and east, otherwise a cold, dry day with long sunny spells. Wintry showers becoming more frequent across Northern Isles later.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Clear or sunny spells and a few wintry showers through Sunday and Monday with severe overnight frosts. Tuesday sees rain and hill snow spreading northeast, significant snow over hills possible.
